

Can't find what you're looking for?

Need help finding a product or service?

ShipServ can help.

If you are at sea:

Email us at source@shipserv.com and we'll run your request through our massive database to find a list of the best suppliers. We will get a response back to you very quickly.

If you're looking for a particular item or have a general question, then email us. Where possible, include the product code and description, the delivery code and location and the ShipServ Onboard page number where the item appears.

If you are ashore:

Search online using the world's busiest specialist maritime search engine at www.shipserv.com

Now in our 20th year and with over 73,000 suppliers in our sophisticated database we're ready to help you find the right suppliers.

Try it out today, it's a free service.